

Michael J Adelman

4 & 6 The Ridgeway, Golders Green
London NW11 8TB
Tel: 020 8455 4501
Mobile: 07966 274468

PERSONAL PROFILE

I have covered a wide range of activities in film and TV production from 1964 as a film Laboratory processing technician to assistant director and focus puller, finally since training in 1981- 1982 settling in the sound department.

KEY SKILLS

- Good technical production knowledge
- Excellent Communication and Interpersonal skills
- Conversant using Windows based Software
- Reliable versatile and dedicated
- Bi-lingual

CAREER SUMMARY

Long Acre, London, WC2

Video/TV retuner for Channel 5.

October 1996-April 1997

Self employment

Minicab Driver: Within M25, 6 days per week from 7am-7pm.

July 1996-September 1996

Shalom Radio, Finchley, London, N3

Assistant to chief engineer during period of temporary broadcast licence (RSL).

May 1996-June 1996

Freelance Sound Engineer

Work includes: mixed location based feature for Spectacular Productions, London, W1.
Assistant to mixers on commercials, news and documentaries e.g. BBC; Thames; ITN; incl. Ivan Sharrock, Ian Munro, Terry Isted, Christian Wangler, Peter Downey David Steckler et al.

June 1984-April 1996

International Film School, London, WC2

Assistant to head of sound: organised lectures and students in sound production / reproduction and all related requirements in the expedition of students course films.

March 1982-May 1984

BBC TV Local /Regional

Assistant director on various films and TV productions in England and Israel.

February 1967-February 1982

Israel, Haifa

Single handedly made a non copyright stereo recording of a live 2 hour music session in an auditorium in the presence of an audience of 1000.

November 1980

National Screen Services, Alperton Middlesex

Film processing technician.

December 1964-January 1967

TRAINING SKILLS

Community Systems, 4 Dollis Park, London, N3

ECDL (European Computer Driving Licence): Using Windows 98 and different application softwares such as Word 97, Excel, PowerPoint, Access and Internet.

March 2000-Present

Astra Training Services Enfield

March 1989-November 1990

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Member of A.M.P.S and B.E.C.T.U.

Holder of current Journalists Press Card

HOBBIES/INTERESTS: Squash, badminton, swimming, photography, current affairs, natural history, cinema, classical music and short wave radio.

REFERENCES AVAILABLE ON REQUEST